Amenities

Located 4 miles north of Winchcombe, 5 miles east of Tewkesbury, as well as Evesham and Cheltenham within 10 miles, Alderton provides a village life close to amenities.

Alderton has retained the beating heart of any thriving village with a 16th century inn and 21st century cuisine, a shop and post office, primary school, children's play park and active village hall. The church offers regular services and secular fun events and the village campanologists are always keen to attract new bell ringers. With numerous clubs and activities for everyone including a local football team, this is a lively community, yet numerous public footpaths on to Alderton and Dumbleton hills provide a quiet contrast. Just beyond the village there are plenty of dining out options, the Gloucestershire/Warwickshire railway, Sudeley Castle and numerous nurseries for gardeners delight.

Directions

From Perry Bishop's Cheltenham office, head north on Middle Street and follow signs to join the A46 northbound toward Tewkesbury. Continue on the A46 for approximately seven miles, then take the exit toward A438/Bredon. Follow the road into Alderton village, then turn onto Willow Bank Road. The property will be on your left hand side, as indicated by a Perry Bishop 'For Sale' board.
