About the property

A comprehensively renovated and high-specification five-bedroom dormer bungalow, offering generous and flexible accommodation, a large rear garden and being offered to the market with no onward chain.

The property has been thoughtfully upgraded throughout to create a modern home with a clean and consistent finish, while still retaining a sense of warmth and practicality suited to everyday living.

The ground floor is particularly well arranged, centred around a spacious living room with a log burning stove, which opens through to a bright dining area with bi-fold doors leading out to the garden. This creates a natural flow between the main living spaces and provides an ideal setting for both family life and entertaining.

The kitchen has been finished to a high standard, offering a contemporary design with integrated appliances and ample workspace, complemented by a separate utility room.

Also on the ground floor are three bedrooms, including a generous principal bedroom with direct access to the garden and a walk-in wardrobe. A further double bedroom and an additional room, currently arranged as a study or fifth bedroom, provide excellent flexibility. These are supported by two beautiful, well-appointed shower rooms.

Upstairs has a bedroom with en suite facilities, along with an additional room suitable as a nursery or home office. Useful eaves storage is also available.

Externally, the property sits on a particularly generous plot. To the front, there is driveway parking and an electric vehicle charging point. The rear garden is a notable feature, offering a substantial lawned area with further scope for landscaping, creating a versatile outdoor space.

Offered to the market with no onward chain, this is a well-finished and adaptable home in a well-regarded Cheltenham location, ideally positioned for access to the town centre, transport links and nearby amenities.

Amenities

Cheltenham is a historic Regency town, often regarded as the gateway to the Cotswolds, and is well known for its strong cultural identity and high quality of life. The town hosts a wide range of nationally recognised festivals throughout the year, including literature, music, jazz, science, food and drink, and National Hunt racing.

The town centre offers an excellent mix of shopping facilities, from independent boutiques to well-known high street brands, alongside a broad range of cafés, restaurants and leisure amenities. Recreational and cultural attractions include theatres, cinemas, golf courses and the renowned Cheltenham Racecourse.

Cheltenham is also well regarded for education, with a variety of highly respected schools in both the state and independent sectors including Cheltenham College, Cheltenham Ladies' College, Dean Close School, Balcarras School, Leckhampton High School and Pate's Grammar School.

Cheltenham is well placed for travel and commuting, with a mainline railway station providing direct services to London and other major cities. The nearby M5 motorway offers convenient access to Bristol, Birmingham and the wider motorway network, while the surrounding countryside and Cotswold villages are easily accessible, making Cheltenham an ideal base for both town and country living.
