About the property

Offered for sale with no onward chain is this charming and well proportioned Grade II Listed terraced home sitting in the heart of Cirencester.

The accommodation is arranged over three floors with the ground floor comprising entrance hall, cloakroom, generous sitting room, separate dining room and kitchen. The first floor offers two double bedrooms and a family bathroom while the second floor offers a sizable study landing, with potential to partition off to create a further bedroom, that leads to the third double bedroom.

Outside, a private rear courtyard garden is accessed off the kitchen.

Amenities

Thomas Street is an attractive street in the old part of Cirencester, predominantly lined with an interesting mixture of period cottages and more substantial town houses, within a 0.25 mile walk of the Market Place, town centre.

The market town of Cirencester is often referred to as the 'Capital of the Cotswolds'. It is ideally located with the M4, M5 and M40/A40, the mainline train station at Kemble and excellent bus and coach links all within easy reach.

Cirencester benefits from high street stores, independent specialist retailers, and a weekly market. There are also several delightful bistros, cafes, wine bars and public houses to suit all tastes. Cirencester boasts a community hospital, leisure centre, arts and craft centre, award winning museum, a theatre and a lovely outdoor swimming pool. Nearby there is golf, tennis, riding, football, rugby and cricket, and within the town a bowls club. There are excellent primary and secondary state schools and a sixth form college campus.

There are also good independent schools in the surrounding areas. The Royal Agricultural University is located just outside of the town and the area has numerous open green areas to visit for picnics and walks.
