About the property

Upon entering, you are greeted by a porch which provides access to the main reception room; this spacious sitting/dining room offers a wonderful amount of space with patio doors out onto the garden. From here there is access to an office, that could be a playroom or fourth bedroom, at the front of the property. To the rear, a modern kitchen, fitted with a good range of floor and wall mounted units as well as space and plumbing for white goods, also benefiting from a new floor.

On the first floor are three well-proportioned bedrooms, two of which have built in wardrobes, and serviced by the family bathroom, fitted with a modern white suite.

The property sits on a great plot with ample driveway parking to the front. To the rear, the garden offers great privacy and is mainly laid to lawn, with a patio section closest to the house.

Amenities

The historic market town of Faringdon, dating back at least to the 12th century, has a thriving community and amenities such as the Leisure Centre, Library, Faringdon Community College, The Elms and Folly View primary schools as well as The Old Station Nursery, doctors' and dentists' surgeries and The Place Family Centre. Buses travel from the town to private schools at Abingdon. The town now boasts three large supermarkets.

Faringdon is also ideally positioned for the A420, leading to the A34, M40 and M4 and mainline railway services from Swindon, Oxford, Oxford Parkway and Didcot Parkway. There is a frequent bus service through the town from Swindon to Oxford and back, linking to rail services and airports.

The Tower on Folly Hill was built by Lord Berners in 1935 and affords panoramic views across four counties. For over 20 years, the town has been twinned with Le Mêle-sur-Sarthe in France and more recently with Königstein im Taunus in Germany. In 2004, Faringdon became the first Fairtrade town in the South East of England.

what the owner said

This house has been an amazing family home for us. It is within easy access to a lot of amenities and some good walks if you have a dog.
