About the property

A stunning Grade II terrace home situated in the conservation area in the heart of Faringdon. This property is beautifully presented throughout, and the vendor has refurbished it to a very high standard.

Upon entering the kitchen / diner which has been refitted with an array of floor and wall mounted units and solid wooden work surfaces. There are integrated appliances such as fridge / freezer, dishwasher, microwave, Range style cooker and a pull-out larder cupboard. From the kitchen there is a lovely outlook and access to the rear garden. At the front of the home is a stylish living room with two large sash windows and a working fireplace.

On the first floor are two double bedrooms, and a fantastic modern family bathroom with separate bath and walk in shower cubicle. On the second floor is a truly magnificent master bedroom. This really has the wow factor with an exposed beam, inbuilt wardrobes.

Outside the rear garden is incredibly quaint with a good size patio, ideal for alfresco dining, lawned area, shrub borders and a shed.

Amenities

The historic market town of Faringdon, dating back at least to the 12th century, has a thriving community and amenities such as the Leisure Centre, Library, Faringdon Community College, Junior and Infant schools as well as The Old Station Nursery, doctors' and dentists' surgeries and a Family Centre. Buses travel from the town to private schools at Abingdon. The town now boasts three large supermarkets.

Faringdon is also ideally positioned for the A420, leading to the A34, M40 and M4 and mainline railway services from Swindon, Oxford, Oxford Parkway and Didcot Parkway. There is a frequent bus service through the town from Swindon to Oxford and back, linking to rail services and airports.

The Tower on Folly Hill was built by Lord Berners in 1935 and affords panoramic views across four counties. For over 20 years, the town has been twinned with Le Mêle-sur-Sarthe in France and in 2004, Faringdon became the first Fairtrade town in the South East of England.

what the owner said

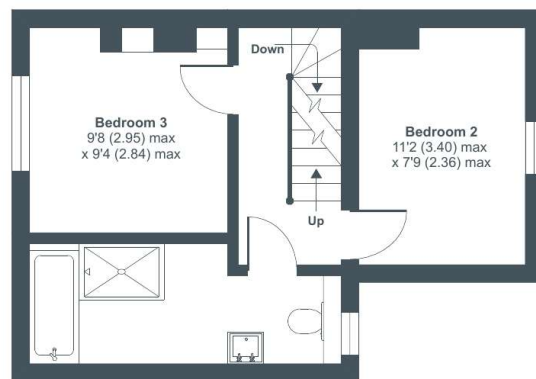

Faringdon is a such great place to live. A market town with a true sense of community. A place with so much going on it's hard to choose just one example. For pure entertainment though (in the widest sense of the word) my special mention must go to the Regency Cinema. A monthly treat on your doorstep, I love it!
