About the property
A beautifully presented link detached bungalow situated at the end of a small cul-de-sac of similar homes within a popular part of Faringdon.

The accommodation comprises a spacious entrance porch leading into the hall where there is ample storage. There is a modern and recently refitted bathroom with shower over the bath, a good-sized single bedroom and bright double bedroom with space for wardrobes.

The current owners have recently added a window to the sitting / dining room which has created a lovely light space and there are patio doors into a conservatory overlooking the rear garden. The kitchen lies off the sitting room and includes an array of floor and wall mounted units. The conservatory is a great size and provides access to a newly converted double bedroom, cloakroom, and utility / storage.

Outside, the property has a parking for two vehicles to the front as well as a well tendered lawned front garden. Gated access takes you through to the rear garden which is fully enclosed and has recently been beautifully landscaped.

This has a raised, private patio area dropping down to a lawn with vegetable beds, flowered borders and garden shed. This is a truly blissful area away from the hustle and bustle of the town.

Amenities
The historic market town of Faringdon, dating back at least to the 12th century, has a thriving community and amenities such as the Leisure Centre, Library, Faringdon Community College, The Elms and Folly View primary schools as well as The Old Station Nursery, doctors' and dentists' surgeries and The Place Family Centre. Buses travel from the town to private schools at Abingdon. The town now boasts three large supermarkets.

Faringdon is also ideally positioned for the A420, leading to the A34, M40 and M4 and mainline railway services from Swindon, Oxford, Oxford Parkway and Didcot Parkway. There is a frequent bus service through the town from Swindon to Oxford and back, linking to rail services and airports.

The Tower on Folly Hill was built by Lord Berners in 1935 and affords panoramic views across four counties. For over 20 years, the town has been twinned with Le Mêle-sur-Sarthe in France and more recently with Konigstein im Taunus in Germany. In 2004, Faringdon became the first Fairtrade town in the South East of England
