About the property

A lovely two-bedroom cottage that has been with the same family for many years.

The accommodation comprises of an entrance hall, a dual aspect sitting room, a dining room and a kitchen with a range of fitted units and space for appliances. In addition, there is a downstairs shower room.

The first floor provides a dual aspect double bedroom and a well-proportioned single bedroom, along with a bathroom and two large storage cupboards.

Externally, the property benefits from gravelled driveway parking to the side, which leads to the lovely cottage garden at the rear. This delightful garden has two patio areas, with well stocked borders, a vegetable patch and both plum and apple trees.

Amenities

Situated midway between the market towns of Faringdon and Wantage, Stanford in the Vale offers a local supermarket with Post Office, a successful primary school, pre-school, parish church, village hall, public house and independent coffee shop.

Stanford in the Vale lies just four miles from the A420, giving easy access to the larger centres of Oxford and Swindon which lead to the M40 and M4 respectively. There is a mainline train service from Didcot Parkway to London (Paddington c. 45 minutes) within 30 minutes' drive. There is also a regular bus service.

Beautiful countryside walks are literally on the doorstep of this historic village, with the Downs and famous White Horse of Uffington, the River Thames and the Cotswolds all within easy reach.

what the owner said

Built in circa 1842, and located within the village conservation area, it is a quintessential English cottage with a beautiful garden with a large array of unusual plants. Having been in the same family for 5 generations it is 'much loved' and has excellent potential. The house has views from the front to Church Green and not overlooked with a generous garden.
