About the property

The property is entered into a central hallway with stairs rising to the first floor and a useful downstairs cloakroom. To the front is the generous sitting room, a bright and comfortable space with French doors opening directly onto the rear garden. Across the hallway is the kitchen/dining room, offering a good range of wall and base units alongside plenty of space for a dining table, with a further set of French doors providing access to the garden – ideal for entertaining and family life during the warmer months.

Upstairs, the principal bedroom is a well-proportioned double and benefits from fitted storage and its own en-suite shower room. There is a further double bedroom, a good-sized third bedroom and a family bathroom fitted with a modern white suite.

Outside, the rear garden is fully enclosed and offers a lovely combination of lawn and established planting, with a mature tree adding interest and privacy. A generous decked seating area spans the rear of the house, providing an excellent space for outdoor dining and entertaining.

To the front, the property is attractively set back behind a low-maintenance garden, while the separate garage provides useful parking or additional storage with a further door leading into the garden.

Amenities

The historic market town of Faringdon, dating back at least to the 12th century, has a thriving community and amenities such as the Leisure Centre, Library, Faringdon Community College, The Elms and Folly View primary schools as well as The Old Station Nursery, doctors' and dentists' surgeries and The Place Family Centre. Buses travel from the town to private schools at Abingdon. The town now boasts three large supermarkets.

Faringdon is also ideally positioned for the A420, leading to the A34, M40 and M4 and mainline railway services from Swindon, Oxford, Oxford Parkway and Didcot Parkway. There is a frequent bus service through the town from Swindon to Oxford and back, linking to rail services and airports.

The Tower on Folly Hill was built by Lord Berners in 1935 and affords panoramic views across four counties. For over 20 years, the town has been twinned with Le Mêle-sur-Sarthe in France and more recently with Königstein im Taunus in Germany. In 2004, Faringdon became the first Fairtrade town in the South East of England.

what the owner said

The house sits on a quiet, calm road within a ten-minute walk of Faringdon's historic town centre, with local amenities including cosy independent coffee shops and an array of restaurants, each offering a unique culinary experience. The house is also a five-minute walk from Folly Country Park, which offers a lovely walk with magnificent scenic views of the Vale of White Horse. This park also acts as the main hub for sporting activity in Faringdon, with the tennis, rugby and cricket clubs all situated here. Moreover, a fully equipped, friendly local gym is conveniently located at the entrance to the estate and offers 24-hour access.

The property itself is both modern and comfortable. One of the most attractive features is the decking within the south-facing garden, which provides a lovely sun trap with natural wind protection. This is a real delight in the summer months and typically becomes the congregation point for most social events. The neighbourhood is quiet, and the neighbours are extremely personable.
