Key Features

About the property

Tucked away along a shared private driveway serving just two properties, this beautifully presented detached bungalow enjoys an enviable position on the edge of Faringdon, offering the perfect balance of town and country living. Within comfortable walking distance of both the historic market town centre and the surrounding open countryside, the property provides an exceptional lifestyle in a peaceful yet highly convenient setting.

The bungalow offers bright and versatile accommodation, thoughtfully updated by the current owners to create a comfortable and energy-efficient home. At its heart is a recently fitted contemporary kitchen, complemented by a separate utility room, while the generous dual-aspect sitting/dining room provides an excellent space for everyday living and entertaining. There are three well-proportioned bedrooms, together with a separate dining room that could equally serve as a fourth bedroom, home office or family room. The bedrooms are serviced by a family bathroom fitted with a four piece suite. Additionally the property has a cloakroom and a delightful sun room overlooking the gardens.

The property has also benefited from significant recent improvements including a new boiler, updated electrical installation and the addition of solar panels, helping to improve both efficiency and running costs while offering peace of mind for the next owners.

Outside is where this home truly comes into its own. The extensive wrap-around gardens have been lovingly established over many years and provide an exceptional outdoor setting. A large expanse of lawn is complemented by mature trees, established flower beds bursting with seasonal colour, productive vegetable patches and a delightful orchard, creating a wonderful space for keen gardeners, families and those seeking a more sustainable lifestyle.

Further enhancing the property's appeal is a detached garage together with substantial workshops and outbuildings, offering excellent storage, workshop space or potential for a variety of uses, subject to any necessary consents.

Occupying a private setting whilst remaining within easy walking distance of Faringdon's excellent range of shops, cafés, schools and amenities, as well as the surrounding countryside, this is a rare opportunity to acquire a spacious, well-maintained bungalow with exceptional gardens in one of the town's most desirable locations.

Amenities

The historic market town of Faringdon, dating back at least to the 12th century, has a thriving community and amenities such as the Leisure Centre, Library, Faringdon Community College, The Elms and Folly View primary schools as well as The Old Station Nursery, doctors' and dentists' surgeries and The Place Family Centre. Buses travel from the town to private schools at Abingdon. The town now boasts three large supermarkets.

Faringdon is also ideally positioned for the A420, leading to the A34, M40 and M4 and mainline railway services from Swindon, Oxford, Oxford Parkway and Didcot Parkway. There is a frequent bus service through the town from Swindon to Oxford and back, linking to rail services and airports.

The Tower on Folly Hill was built by Lord Berners in 1935 and affords panoramic views across four counties. For over 20 years, the town has been twinned with Le Mêle-sur-Sarthe in France and more recently with Königstein im Taunus in Germany. In 2004, Faringdon became the first Fairtrade town in the South East of England.
