About the property

The property is situated in a very quiet cul-de-sac. Upon entering, you are greeted by a hall with downstairs cloak room. The kitchen is situated at the front of the home and has a wide range of fitted base and wall units, with space for various appliances. To the rear is a fabulous sitting room which has ample space for a dining table and a large storage cupboard. The sitting room has French doors leading to the conservatory, which is a bright space with wonderful views over the garden and patio doors out.

Upstairs are three bright bedrooms. The main bedroom has the added benefit of built-in wardrobes and storage cupboard. The bedrooms are all serviced by the family bathroom with a modern white suite.

Outside, to the front of the property, is driveway parking which leads to the single garage. A side gate provides access to the rear garden. Which has a superb patio area along with a lawned area, offering great privacy and is South East facing.

Amenities

The historic market town of Faringdon, dating back at least to the 12th century, has a thriving community and amenities such as the Leisure Centre, Library, Faringdon Community College, The Elms and Folly View primary schools as well as The Old Station Nursery, doctors' and dentists' surgeries and The Place Family Centre. Buses travel from the town to private schools at Abingdon. The town now boasts three large supermarkets.

Faringdon is also ideally positioned for the A420, leading to the A34, M40 and M4 and mainline railway services from Swindon, Oxford, Oxford Parkway and Didcot Parkway. There is a frequent bus service through the town from Swindon to Oxford and back, linking to rail services and airports.

The Tower on Folly Hill was built by Lord Berners in 1935 and affords panoramic views across four counties. For over 20 years, the town has been twinned with Le Mêle-sur-Sarthe in France and more recently with Konigstein im Taunus in Germany. In 2004, Faringdon became the first Fairtrade town in the South East of England.

what the owner said

Perfectly located in a safe area, walking distance to all that Faringdon offers; shops, medical practice, schools, public transport and countryside beauty spots. The house is light and has a lot of storage space. We have enjoyed the garden and will miss outside dining here.
