About the property

A charming, detached period cottage situated in Faringdon Town. This property is brimming with character and offers spacious living accommodation, a small and enclosed garden and designated off-road parking.

Upon entering you are greeted by a hall with downstairs cloakroom and stairs to the first floor. The kitchen is fitted with a range of shaker style floor and wall mounted units and has a pretty outlook over the garden. The sitting / dining room offers a great space and has lots of natural light, being dual aspect with two fireplaces. There is a natural divide between the sitting and dining area with exposed beams.

On the first floor are two double bedrooms and a single bedroom with the master providing ample fitted wardrobe space. These are all serviced by a family bathroom with a separate shower cubicle.

Outside the compact and pretty garden is entered through a side gate and there is offroad parking for one vehicle.

The property is offered to the market as end of chain.

Amenities

The historic market town of Faringdon, dating back at least to the 12th century, has a thriving community and amenities such as the Leisure Centre, Library, Faringdon Community College, The Elms and Folly View primary schools as well as The Old Station Nursery, doctors' and dentists' surgeries and The Place Family Centre. Buses travel from the town to private schools at Abingdon. The town now boasts three large supermarkets.

Faringdon is also ideally positioned for the A420, leading to the A34, M40 and M4 and mainline railway services from Swindon, Oxford, Oxford Parkway and Didcot Parkway. There is a frequent bus service through the town from Swindon to Oxford and back, linking to rail services and airports.

The Tower on Folly Hill was built by Lord Berners in 1935 and affords panoramic views across four counties. For over 20 years, the town has been twinned with Le Mêle-sur-Sarthe in France and more recently with Konigstein im Taunus in Germany. In 2004, Faringdon became the first Fairtrade town in the South East of England.
