Wedmore Methodist Church

Sand Road, Wedmore, BS28 4BZ

This detached property was originally built in 1817 and extended in 1895. It has solid stone elevations under pitched tile and slate roof.

It stands in a large plot of approx. 0.25 acres, incorporating a burial ground which lies mainly to the south and west of the buildings along with a car park with separate vehicular access which is rough surfaced and which lies to the north of the buildings. It has a frontage to Sand Road of approx. 35m and a return frontage to Guildhall Lane of 30m.

Wedmore is a very popular residential town with excellent retail and commercial facilities for everyday use. It is within easy driving distance of both Wells and Street.

The accommodation can be summarised as follows:

Ground Floor

Doors to Chapel 12m x 7.5m = 90 sq.m / 968 sq.ft
Side vestibule 3m x 2m = 6 sq.m / 65sq.ft
School Room 9.2m x 7.8m = 72 sq.m / 775 sq.ft
Kitchen and cloakroom
There is a cellar

Outside

The extent of the property is shown on the OS within these particulars for identification purposes only. The crosshatched area is a graveyard (see important notes) There is in addition to the grounds of the chapel a good sized car park with vehicular access. The overall plot is approx. 0.25 acres.

Directions
