Amenities

Once christened "The Undiscovered Cotswolds" Nailsworth is a growing historic market town that has become increasingly popular in recent years.

Famous as the location for the highly regarded 'Williams Kitchen' delicatessen as well as offering free parking, the town also features a wide range of shops from well-known high street names to cafes and unique independent shops.

A local centre for the arts with an annual arts festival, the town is well known for its fine restaurants and friendly local pubs as well as its famous football club Forest Green Rovers. Nestled in a wooded valley, the surrounding flat topped rolling hills offer boundless country walks.

Local amenities include highly regarded private and public sector schools, banks, a new leisure centre, Post Office, doctors, dentists, golf courses, riding stables, gliding and polo clubs and a public library.

Nailsworth has convenient road links to all main cities, towns and rail links in the area including Stroud's mainline train station that is approximately 5 miles away and offers an 80 minute (approx.) rail journey to Paddington. Less than 7 miles away is the larger market town of Tetbury well known for its antique shops and hotels plus its close proximity to the royal estates of Highgrove and Gatcombe Park as well as the world famous Westonbirt Arboretum
