About the property

Absolutely stunning three bedroom detached house in a desirable location. This charming property has excellent views across the valley, sits in an historic walled kitchen garden, separate garage and off street parking.

The house is bright and airy with clean lines, quarry tile and wooden floors. The open plan reception rooms have fabulous views and connect to the kitchen with pantry and separate utility room. The wrap-around, landscaped gardens include a dry perennial front border with mature planting and a mix of topiary shrubs and established trees. The distinctive surrounding wall with its lime washed surface and bricked up inset arch, formerly belonged to Inchbrook House.

It is ideal for those seeking a peaceful retreat, within walking distance the local amenities of Nailsworth. The house is stylish, peaceful and practical with excellent potential for expansion.

Amenities

Once christened "The Undiscovered Cotswolds", Nailsworth is a growing historic market town that has become increasingly popular in recent years. Famous as the location for the highly regarded 'Williams Food Hall' delicatessen as well as offering free parking, the town also features a wide range of shops from well-known high street names to cafes and unique independent shops. A local centre for the arts with an annual arts festival, the town is well known for its fine restaurants and friendly local pubs as well as its famous football club Forest Green Rovers. Nestled in a wooded valley, the surrounding flat topped rolling hills offer boundless country walks. Local amenities include highly regarded private schools Beadesert and Wycliffe College; good public sector schools and sought after girls and boys grammar schools. Other local amenities include a Post Office, doctors, dentists, golf courses, riding stables, polo clubs and a library.

Nailsworth has convenient road links to all main cities, towns and rail links in the area including Stroud's mainline train station that is approximately 5 miles away and offers an 80 minute (approx.) rail journey to Paddington. Less than 7 miles away is the larger market town of Tetbury well known for its antique shops and hotels plus its close proximity to the world famous Westonbirt Arboretum.
