The main house offers extensive accommodation arranged over two floors. The generous layout and proportions mean the property could, if desired, be reconfigured for a variety of uses.

Amenities

Nympsfield is a welcoming and well-regarded Cotswold village with a strong sense of community and a lovely rural setting on the edge of the Cotswold escarpment. At the heart of the village is the popular community-owned pub, The Rose & Crown, which serves as a social hub for residents alongside the active village hall that hosts a variety of local events and activities throughout the year. The village is also home to Nympsfield Club, a well-supported members' club offering a welcoming bar, social events and a skittle alley, further adding to the strong sense of community within the village.

The village is surrounded by beautiful open countryside, offering immediate access to an extensive network of footpaths and scenic walks across the Cotswold hills.

Despite its peaceful setting, the village is conveniently located for a range of nearby towns. Stroud is just a short drive away and provides an excellent range of independent shops, cafés, restaurants and leisure facilities, as well as a mainline railway station with direct services to London Paddington in around 90 minutes. The attractive market town of Nailsworth is also close by, known for its award-winning delicatessens, cafés and artisan food shops, while Dursley offers further everyday amenities, supermarkets and schooling.
