About the property

Tucked away in a peaceful cul-de-sac and enjoying truly stunning panoramic views across the Slad Valley, this well-presented three-bedroom detached bungalow offers a rare combination of space, flexibility and location. Having been thoughtfully extended, the property provides well-balanced accommodation with a natural flow between the principal living areas, ideal for both everyday living and entertaining.

At the heart of the home, the sitting room opens on to the double glazed conservatory which in turn leads through to the kitchen, creating a sociable and light-filled space that makes the most of the outlook. There are three bedrooms, complemented by a separate study/snug, along with both a bathroom and a shower room, offering practical and versatile living arrangements.

Externally, the property continues to impress. The rear garden has been carefully landscaped and is well stocked with a variety of mature shrubs and trees, providing a private and tranquil setting. To the front, there is driveway parking for a number of vehicles, along with a detached double garage which has been converted into a fully insulated studio by the current owners, ideal for those with hobbies or additional storage needs.

The property also benefits from photovoltaic panels to help keep those electricity bills down!

This is a fantastic opportunity to secure a detached home in a sought-after Stroud setting, perfectly positioned to enjoy both the surrounding countryside and the vibrant town amenities.

Amenities

Stroud is a highly sought-after Cotswold market town, set within the dramatic landscape of the Five Valleys and widely regarded for its strong sense of community, independent spirit and excellent quality of life. Combining beautiful countryside with a vibrant town centre, Stroud offers an appealing balance for both families and professionals alike.

The town is particularly well served by a range of well-regarded schools. There are several popular primary options including Callowell, Uplands and Stroud Valley Community Primary School, while at secondary level, both Marling School and Stroud High School are highly regarded grammar schools, alongside the well-rated Archway School. This strong educational offering, combined with nearby independent schools such as Beaudesert Park and Wycliffe College, makes Stroud a popular choice for families.

Stroud's amenities are a real highlight, with a thriving high street centred around independent shops, cafés and restaurants, giving the town a distinctive and characterful feel. The award-winning farmers' market is one of the best in the country and reflects the town's strong focus on local produce and community. Alongside this, there are supermarkets, leisure facilities, and a growing arts and cultural scene, with regular festivals and events throughout the year.

For those needing to commute, Stroud is exceptionally well connected. The railway station provides direct services to London Paddington in approximately 90 minutes, as well as links to Gloucester, Cheltenham and Swindon. Road links are equally convenient, with the M5 (Junction 13) within easy reach, providing access to Bristol, Birmingham and the wider motorway network.

Overall, Stroud offers an enviable lifestyle, combining excellent schooling, strong transport links and a vibrant yet relaxed atmosphere, all set against the backdrop of some of the most beautiful countryside in the Cotswolds.
