About the property

Nestled in the sought-after village of Thrupp, this charming period home offers an attractive blend of character, comfort and convenience - and it comes to the market with the benefit of NO ONWARD CHAIN.

Beautifully presented throughout, the accommodation is arranged over two floors and provides an inviting sitting room, adjoining dining room, fitted kitchen, two bedrooms and a generous family bathroom.

The property has been well cared for and retains the warmth and charm expected of a home of its era, whilst offering practical and comfortable living for modern lifestyles. The reception rooms provide flexibility for entertaining, home working or simply relaxing, while the well-proportioned principal bedroom enjoys an abundance of natural light.

A particular highlight is the delightful rear garden, which extends to an impressive length and offers a wonderful outdoor retreat. Whether enjoying summer dining, gardening or simply unwinding, the garden provides a surprisingly generous space rarely found with homes of this type.

Amenities

Thrupp has a primary school, and there are a number of small local shops available at Brimscombe corner, with Waitrose also less than a mile away. Two miles away is the historic market town of Stroud - a well-known centre for arts and crafts as well as its weekly Farmers Market; recently voted the best in the country. An annual textile festival is held in the town as well as various exhibitions at the Subscription Rooms and at The Museum In The Park.

Stroud has two state Grammar Schools, for boys and girls, and nearby are several Independent Schools such as Beaudesert Park School in Minchinhampton, Wycliffe College in Stonehouse and the prestigious Cheltenham College and Cheltenham Ladies College are approximately 30 minutes away.

Stroud has good transport links with easy access to both the M4 & M5 and London Paddington only 90 minutes (approx.) by train and Bath and Bristol 45 minutes by car.
